

Week Two: Public History Field School

Salmon, ID

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
---------------	---------------	----------------	------------------	-----------------	---------------	-----------------

Sacajawea Center orientation with Director Lin Gray; young adult story work; Lemhi County Museum a no-go because it was closed for Memorial Day; went to Salmon Public cemetery with Leo where he oriented everyone with the cemetery and Agai Dikas buried there; drove up a creek above Salmon and dug bitterroot and wild carrots with Leo giving a discussion about its traditional use by tribe; afternoon work on PowerPoints and young adult stories at Sacajawea Cultural Center; no presentations that evening;	Drive from VC to Salmon, checked in to Sacajawea Inn in Salmon, Idaho	Toured Lemhi County Museum in morning, afternoon work session in Sac Center	Morning work session; Tendoy grave site in afternoon with BLM archaeologist Steve Wright; Visited the Tendoy Store, Sacajawea commemorative birth site; Allison Bremmeyer's NAKA interview at the Salmon Public Cemetery; Megan Ockerman's NAKA Interview at the Tendoy grave site, 25 miles south of Salmon on a Lemhi Pass;	Alexis, Seth, and Jared NAKA interviews; Salmon Mayor Leo Marshall NAKA interview; Seth Moore and Alexis Hoech Naka interviews at the Sacajawea Center; Thursday evening public viewing of Naka's one-hour documentary, "The Spirit of Sacajawea," at the Sacajawea Cultural Center, full house, 50-person crowd of locals from Salmon, Idaho;	Morning "Indian camp" site visitations at various locations in Salmon; Judy Berkely NAKA interview; pm: Leo Ariwite presented beaded earrings as gifts to all students, earrings that were made by his wife, Toni; NAKA filmed Leo Ariwite giving a buckskin Lemhi glove demonstration; visited old Fort Lemhi site 25 miles south of Salmon; visited the Narrows at Agency Creek near the town of Tendoy at Chief Tendoy's alleged drowning site; Leo showed students Shoshone pictographs at the Narrows; pm work continued on Tendoy Park interpretive PowerPoint presentations	Students visited the Sharky Hot Springs on the Lewis and Clark Historic Backcountry Byway on Lemhi a Pass; some explored downtown Salmon and attended the Riverfest Concert,
--	--	--	--	---	---	---